

Stabbing at John Tyler High School

Posted: Sep 23, 2009 9:06 AM CDT Updated: Sep 23, 2009 11:41 AM CDT

UPDATE - John Tyler High School is placed on lockdown after a teacher is stabbed. The call came in to Tyler Police around 9:00am.

Police Chief Gary Swindle has confirmed that a male teacher was stabbed to death. The victim is 52 year old Todd Henry, a history teacher.

It has been confirmed that students have been released and parents can now pick up their children. Due to the amount of congestion in the area, the students are being released to go find their parent's cars.

Chief Swindle has also confirmed that a juvenile is in custody for the stabbing.

KYTX CBS 19 is on the scene and will have a live report coming up within the hour. We will release more information as it becomes available.

Source: KYTX CBS 19, Tyler, TX